Why wrapped bread is best

"Because It Will Help Win the War"

By J. Wolf's Market, Cor. 15th and Swann Sts. N. W. Washington, D. C.

"This is a war of economy, just as much as it is a war of cannon and bayonet. The American people must awake to the danger of waste." Wrapped bread stops the stale bread waste. Tastes better.

There is nothing quite so good as the delicious smell of freshly baked bread—and when you remove the wrapper from a properly wrapped loaf you get a whole new wholesome home-baked freshness that makes your mouth water. Try a loaf today.
